

KATELYN E. HALL

Associate

Springfield, IL
217-993-6078

katelyn.hall@heplerbroom.com

Katelyn E. Hall specializes in civil litigation. She has a breadth of experience in different types of civil litigation and has served as defense counsel in numerous jurisdictions across Illinois. Currently, she focuses on medical malpractice defense, personal injury litigation, and environmental law matters. Hall also has experience with cases involving data privacy and security, employment and labor, intellectual property, insurance litigation, and white-collar defense, as well as appellate matters.

Previously, Hall was an Assistant Public Defender. She recently served as part of the Illinois Supreme Court Pro Bono Criminal Appeals Program, where she handled appeal of a second-degree murder case.

Honors

Honors & Awards

- Leadership Springfield graduate (2021)

Professional Associations

- Central Illinois Women's Bar Association

PRACTICES

Environmental Healthcare
Personal Injury
Pharmaceutical & Medical Devices

EDUCATION

- Michigan State University College of Law, M.J., 2017
- Michigan State University College of Law, J.D., 2017
- St. Norbert College, B.A. in History and Philosophy, magna cum laude, 2014

LAW SCHOOL HONORS/ INVOLVEMENT

- Faculty Scholarship (full tuition)
- Moot Court
 - Team Captain, Saul Lefkowitz Trademark
- Teaching Assistant

- Executive Board (2019-present)
- Lincoln-Douglass Inn of Court
- Sangamon County (Illinois) Bar Association

Other Professional/Civic Involvement

- Compass for Kids
 - Board of Directors (2020-present)
- The Parent Place
 - Board of Directors (2018-present)

Insights

Events & Speaking Engagements

- “Non-Fungible Tokens: The Future of Intellectual Property Litigation,” Central Illinois Women’s Bar Association (2021).

Blog Posts

JULY 6, 2023 | BLOG

“Forum Shopping” Prevention Added to the Illinois Civil Practice Act

FEBRUARY 22, 2022 | BLOG

Restrictive Covenants: Illinois’ Amended Freedom to Work Act has Serious Impact on Responsibilities of Both Employers and Employees

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Illinois
- U.S. Court of Appeals for the 7th Circuit
- U.S. District Courts for the
 - Northern District of Illinois
 - Central District of Illinois
 - Southern District of Illinois