HeplerBroom's St. Louis office (located downtown in the Peabody Building, near both the city and federal courthouses) serves all of Missouri.

To accommodate the increasing number of our clients located in the City of St. Louis and St. Louis County, in 1999, HeplerBroom opened its first office outside of our Edwardsville location. Today the St. Louis office is home to more than 25 attorneys. These attorneys actively represent clients in courts throughout Missouri in all the firm's practice areas. Additionally, our largest business and corporate services group is based in the St. Louis office, ready to assist business clients with all their legal needs. Our attorneys serve in leadership roles and in professional associations and community organizations in the St. Louis area as well as the rest of the state, demonstrating the firm's commitment to our Missouri clients.
